Acknowledging your funding from Arts Council of Wales

There are a number of logos that should be displayed on your publications and publicity material to acknowledge your Wales in Edinburgh funding from Arts Council of Wales.

The logo strip as shown below should be used, in full-colour wherever possible, but in black or white if necessary.

The logo strip should be legible and positioned wherever most practical, but should not be altered in any way. The three options are:

All these logos including the strips are available to download in digital format the Arts Council of Wales website.
